

Instructions to Authors (updated on Feb. 19, 2019)

Submission

MHC is the official journal of the Japanese Society for Histocompatibility and Immunogenetics (JSHI). The aim of this journal is to serve as a forum for the scientific information in the form of original and high quality papers in the field of major histocompatibility complex (MHC) and immunogenetics. Manuscripts, from basic to clinical research relating to MHC or immunogenetics, are accepted with the understanding that they are original unpublished work and are not being submitted elsewhere. Manuscripts should be written in Japanese or English. First author and corresponding author must be members of JSHI, while it is preferable for the other co-authors also to be JSHI members.

Ethics: Clinical and basic studies using human subjects and specimens obtained from humans must adhere to the 1980 Helsinki Declaration (adapted by the 18th World Medical Assembly) and must be approved by the ethics review board of each participating institution. Furthermore, animal studies must adhere to such guidelines.

Conflict of interest: All the authors must clearly declare any conflicts of interest according to the guideline of JSHI (<http://jshi.umin.ac.jp/coi/index.html>). Further information is available upon request.

Types of papers published: Original articles, reviews, series, short communications (including research and technical bulletins) and case reports are acceptable.

Review: The editorial board is responsible for the acceptance of all submitted papers based on a review by multiple referees. Based on the outcome of the review, the board may request corrections, omissions, or additions for publication in MHC.

Copyright: Papers that are accepted for publication become copyright of JSHI and will be made available electronically via the J-Stage platform (<https://www.jstage.jst.go.jp/>).

Fees: There is no fee for publication. However, authors will be responsible for the costs incurred for color photographs and special prints (please specify at submission if color printing is required).

Reprints: Costs incurred for reprints will be charged based on the number of copies and pages (please specify the number of reprints at the time of proofing).

Manuscript (in English)1. Original articlesSummary

Articles are limited to 4,000 words. Each figure, table, and photograph must be included on separate manuscript pages and must include a title. The location of tables and figures in the manuscript must be clearly stated in the main text. The main text must be submitted as a Microsoft Word file, tables as a Microsoft Word, Excel, or PowerPoint files, and figures and photographs as PowerPoint files. All files must be electronically sent as attached files via email to the editor-in-chief. If the authors would like to submit large size files (over 30 MB), the files should be saved on a CD-ROM, which is to be submitted by mail to the editor-in-chief with one printed copies of the manuscript. Alternatively, the large size files may be submitted via a high volume file transfer service. In that case, the authors must contact the editorial office (indicated on the last page of this instruction) before submission.

First page

The first page is the title page, which must clearly state that the submitted article is an "Original article" and include titles, and the name and affiliation of each author. Include the address, name, telephone number, fax number, and email address of corresponding author at the bottom of the title page. Follow the example shown below for the title, author names, and affiliations:

2. Short communications (including research and technical bulletins) and Case reports

Summary

Short communications are limited to 1,500 words. For other information, please see "Summary" section of "Original articles" described before.

First page

The first page is the title page, which must clearly state that the submitted article is a "Short Communication" or "Case report" and include titles and the name and affiliation of each author. Include the address, name, telephone number, fax number, and e-mail address of the corresponding author at the bottom of the title page. Follow the example shown below for the title, author names, and affiliations:

Main text

- Short communications and case reports do not require an abstract.
- After the second page, follow the same guidelines for the third and subsequent pages of original articles as described.

3. Reviews, Series, and Others

As a general rule, reviews and series are written by invitation from the editorial board; however, submission by JSHI members is strongly encouraged. The editorial board determines the total number of pages, but in general a manuscript of no more than 3,000 words is preferable. As a general rule, reviews and series follow the format for original articles.
