

Instructions to Authors

Submission

MHC is the official journal of the Japanese Society for Histocompatibility for Immunogenetics (JSHI). The aim of this journal is to serve as a forum for the scientific information in the form of original and high quality papers in the field of major histocompatibility complex. Manuscripts, from basic to clinical research relating to MHC, are accepted with the understanding that they are original, unpublished work and are not being submitted elsewhere. As a general rule, authors (including coauthors) must be members of the present society.

Ethics: Clinical and basic studies using human subjects and specimens obtained from humans must adhere to the 1980 Helsinki Declaration (adapted by the 18th World Medical Assembly) and must be approved by the ethics review board of each participating institution. Furthermore, animal studies must adhere to such guidelines.

Types of papers published: Original articles, reviews, series, short communications (including research and technical bulletins) and case reports are accepted.

Review: The editorial board is responsible for the acceptance of all submitted papers based on a review by multiple referees. Based on the outcome of a review, the board may request corrections, omissions, or additions.

Copyright: Papers that are accepted for publication become copyright of the Japanese Society for Histocompatibility and Immunogenetics and may be made available electronically via the Internet.

Fees: There is no fee for publication. However, authors will be responsible for the costs incurred for color photographs and special prints (please specify at submission if color printing is required).

Reprints: Costs incurred for reprints will be charged based on the number of copies and pages (please specify the number of reprints at the time of proofing).

The Manuscript

1. Original articles

Summary

Articles are limited to 30 manuscript pages containing 400 characters per page (approximately 12 printed-pages). Each figure, table, and photograph must be included on separate manuscript pages and must include a title. The location of tables and figures in the manuscript must be clearly stated in the main text. The main text must be submitted as a Microsoft Word file, and figures, tables, and photographs must be submitted as PowerPoint files. All files are to be saved on a CD-ROM, which is to be submitted by mail to the editor-in-chief with one printed copies of the manuscript.

First page

The first page is the title page, which must clearly state that the submitted article is an "Original article" and include titles, and the name and affiliation of each author. Include the address, name, telephone number, fax number, and email address of corresponding author at the bottom of the title page. Follow the example shown below for the title, author names, and affiliations:

Susceptibility gene for non-obstructive azoospermia in the HLA class II region: correlations with Y chromosome microdeletion and spermatogenesis. Tetsuya Takao¹, Akira Tsujimura¹, Masaharu Sada², Reiko Goto², Minoru Koga³, Yasushi Miyagawa¹, Kiyomi Matsumiya¹, Kazuhiko Yamada², Shiro Takahara¹

1) Department of Urology, Osaka University Graduate School of Medicine, Suita, Osaka, Japan

2) Department of Regenerative Medicine, National Cardiovascular Center, Suita, Osaka, Japan

3) Department of Urology, Osaka Central Hospital, Osaka, Japan

Main text

- The second page must contain an "Abstract" no more than 400 words in length, followed by key words (no more than five).

- Starting on the third page, the main text begins with the "Introduction" and is followed by the "Materials and Methods", "Results", "Discussion", "References", and "Acknowledgments" sections, in this order.

(1) Geographic, human, and scientific names are listed in their original languages. Use generic names for drugs with commercial names in parentheses.

(2) Indicate units and quantities using Arabic numbers followed by international units (cm, ml, g, Kg, pg, □l, %, °C, etc.).

References

References should include names of authors (last names first); title of article; title of journal (abbreviate according to the style of Index Medicus) or book; volume number; location and name of publishing company (book only); first page, year of publication.

For references with more than three authors, list the first three, followed by "et al.". See the examples below:

2. Short Communications (including research and technical bulletins) and Case Reports

Summary

Short communications are limited to 15 manuscript pages containing 400 characters per page (approximately 6 printed-pages). Each figure, table, and photograph must be included on separate manuscript pages and must include a title. The location of tables and figures in the manuscript must be clearly stated in the main text. The main text is submitted as a Microsoft Word file, and figures, tables, and photographs must be submitted as PowerPoint files. All files are to be saved on a CD-ROM, which is to be submitted by mail to the editor-in-chief with one printed copies of the manuscript.

First page

The first page is the title page, which must clearly state that the submitted article is a "Short Communication" or "Case report" and include titles and the name and affiliation of each author. Include the address, name, telephone number, fax number, and email address of the corresponding author at the bottom of the title page. Follow the example shown below for the title, author names, and affiliations:

Main text

- Short communications and case reports do not require an abstract.
- After the second page, follow the same guidelines for the third and subsequent pages of original articles as described.

3. Reviews, Series, and Others

As a general rule, reviews and series are written at the request of the editorial board; however, submission by members is strongly encouraged. The editorial board determines the total number of articles. As a general rule, reviews and series follow the format for original articles.
